

When anyone in town could be the culprit in a crime, summer will be anything but boring!

Eleven-year-old Tracy Munroe and her family have just gotten back from vacation—why did no one realize that her little brother, Lester, a.k.a. Pig Face, was allergic to sand, salt, air, and the ocean before they decided to go to the beach?—and now she has three big goals to accomplish before she goes back to school:

1. Figure out a fantastic end-of-summer adventure with her best friend, Ralph, budding three-star Michelin chef. (And no, Ralph, perfecting a soufflé does not count.)
2. Make sure Pig Face does not tag along.
3. Get the fascinating new boy next door, Zach, to realize she even exists, and if that upsets rival Jasmine, even better!

But when Tracy and Ralph discover a bag stuffed with money in the dugout at the baseball field (and Lester forces them to let him tag along), they have a mystery on their hands. Did someone lose the cash? Or was it stolen? St. Stephen has always seemed like a quiet place to live, but soon the town is brimming with suspects. Can the trio discover the truth before they're accused of the crime themselves?
